Message from President

Greetings! I hope this newsletter finds you happy and healthy.

We are having a General Meeting at 10:00 am on Saturday June 6, 2020, via ZOOM. It will be a short but very important meeting to Install New Board Members. Please look for the invitation email from Elizabeth Leader for the Zoom meeting Login. You can join the meeting with your phone, your iPad, or your computer! Until we meet again in person, please join this meeting so we can take care of business and say a brief "hello!" to each other. I have missed you all.

If you haven't had a chance to, don't forget to re-new your annual AAUW membership. There's no paperwork, just a simple dues payment. The best option is to renew with your credit card online. If you have not renewed, please look for an email from memberinfo@aauw.org with the title, "AAUW Membership Renewal." It has your unique personal link that takes you directly to credit card payment.

Until we meet again, stay safe and healthy.

Sincerely,

Young Milton

Next book is Where the Crawdads Sing by Delia Owens

Young Milton will be leading it. Contact Elizabeth Leader to get the link. elizabeth.leader@gmail.com

Where the Crawdads Sing is a 2018 novel by Delia Owens.^[2] It has topped The New York Times Fiction Best Sellers of 2019 and The New York Times Fiction Best Sellers of 2020 for a combined 30 non-consecutive weeks. The story follows two timelines that slowly intertwine. The first timeline describes the life and adventures of a young girl named Kya as she grows up isolated in the marsh of North Carolina from 1952–1969. The second timeline follows a murder investigation of Chase Andrews, a local celebrity of Barkley Cove, a fictional coastal town of North Carolina. Wikipedia.com

Good afternoon Quarantine Readers!

I think we're doing just fine with our Zoom meetings. But we'd definitely like to see more faces winking back at us on the screen. If you don't Zoom yet, let me know. We'll get somebody competent to help you get started.

In July, Lesley is suggesting The Lovely Bones, by Alice Sebold . Her alternate is The Tiger's Wife by Tea Obrecht.

In August, Margie is suggesting Machines Like me, by Ian McEwan. Her alternates are The Pearl that Broke it's Shell by Nadia Hashemite or The Soul of America by John Merch.

In September, Charlotte has chosen The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society, by Mary Ann Shaffer.

For October, Bobbie has selected Rebecca, by Daphne du Maurier.

We're open for suggestions and hosts for future months anytime.

Keep your eyes strong! Cynthia Young

Public Policy

It Only Takes Two Minutes!

Join AAUW in urging Congress to improve and expand legislation protecting our civil rights, economic security, and access to education.

TELL CONGRESS TODAY

Support the Voting Rights Advancement Act

Over the past decade, states and localities across the country have enacted policies that make it harder to vote.

The landmark Voting Rights Act of 1965 stopped states from enacting racially discriminatory voting restrictions. However, laws fostering voter suppression have been on the rise. The 2013 Shelby County v. Holder Supreme Court decision gutted key protections in the law, making way for many of these new discriminatory and restrictive voting laws. These voting restrictions disproportionately impact people of color, women, voters with disabilities, and young and older voters, making it more difficult for them to access the ballot box.

With so much at stake each time we head to the ballot box, it's crucial that everyone is able to make their voice heard. The Voting Rights Advancement Act (H.R. 4/S. 561) responds to the Shelby decision and the wave of voter suppression tactics enacted. It's time for Congress to restore this landmark law and ensure voters can fully participate in elections—urge your Senators to support this bill today!
