Climate Crisis

Christine Assad
Policy Committee

The High-level Dialogue on Energy (24 September) is the first global gathering on energy under the auspices of the General Assembly since the 1981 UN Conference on New and Renewable Sources of Energy. It is the culmination of a year of accelerated action to achieve affordable, clean energy for all by 2030. Clean renewable energy is front and center to tackling climate change.

AAUW supports promoting leadership among young women; many AAUW scholarship recipients are advocates for climate change. Climate change featured prominently in the 2020 presidential election, with younger voters ranking climate action as their top priority.

We know how to solve climate change, and the public does, too. With deep and immediate cuts to U.S. carbon dioxide emissions; investments that create jobs in the clean economies of the future; and meaningful work to right decades of environmental injustices, we can get to the clean future that humans need to survive.

President Biden said that the U.S. national goal is to reduce greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions by 50% to 52% below 2005 emission levels by the year 2030 and net-zero emissions by 2050. The President indicated that investing in “green technology” provides an opportunity to create numerous good-paying jobs—while spurring long-term economic growth and an improved quality of life.

Call or write to Congress in support of these energy proposals.

Coming next month: meet our new members

Programs

Susan Duling and Carolyn Thom

Dear AAUW Friends,

Thank you for attending our September 11 “75th Anniversary of Fallbrook Branch” and for inviting your guests to learn about our branch history in a wonderful presentation given by President Margie Mosavi and Historian Nancy Heins-Glaser. I got goosebumps hearing about all that Fallbrook AAUW has created or contributed to in Fallbrook. Karen Estes, our longest branch member and Marj Freda shared their reminisces about being past-presidents. Carlene Friesen brought a delicious anniversary carrot cake and the opportunity drawing basket created by funds chair Sharon Robinson went home with Maria Viernes. Thank you to all who helped with set-up and clean up. Maria Viernes and Alice Orr, Hospitality Co-Chairs passed around sign-up sheets for hostesses for monthly meetings set-up, clean-up, and treats. See you in October!

Saturday October 2, 2021, 10:00 AM, Wellness Center, FRHD,

1636 East Mission Rd, Fallbrook (near Stage Coach Lane)

Hostesses: Marli Shoop, Diane Summers, Chris Assad, and Lanique Boling

Program: Phyllis Austin Heaton, Historical Novelist and Author of “Miss Sadie Brown Mysteries” series, featuring Miss Sadie Brown, aviatrix, newspaper columnist/reporter and undercover snoop. “Sadie challenges the pre-WWI convention that women belong at home attending to their husbands and raising their children. Female Sleuth? Women Flying? Equal Pay? It’s a battle out there.” There are three books in the series.

Print and share with your friends
the flyer on the next page.

Reports from Appointed Chairs

Mentorship Program

Karen Langer-Baker

Young Milton had arrived early to help set up everything. Mentors brought all kinds of delicious accompaniments to add to the ice cream and sauces. There was plenty of shade on the patio, so our whole group was able to gather and share what we knew about each other after the girls had eaten and walked around the park to see all the beautiful sculptures.

Our next group event will be at the outdoor Moonlight Theater October 2nd, to picnic and see a play.

From new mentor Chris Assad:

We have begun a 3-year friendship.

Mom is Nicole and a resource counselor in Fallbrook.

Movie Review Group

Carole Hodges

On September 10, the Movie Review Group met in the garden of Liz Jamieson-Dunne. Everyone brought her own meal, and members provided recommendations for online series including Heartland, The Good Witch, The Kominsky Method, and White Lotus.

We voted to keep our meeting outdoors, with members bringing their own meals for October. Our next meeting is:

Friday, October 15 at 5:30 (earlier time)

Home of Kathy and Chet Bierbrauer

Movie reviewers: Larry and Karen Langer Baker

Movie: SHANG-CHI AND THE LEGEND OF THE TEN RINGS

RSVP: ckbierbr@gmail.com

Watch for email announcements at the beginning of October!

Out and about in the community: Nancy Heins-Glaser and Jackie Heyneman at a Chamber of Commerce event
