Women with Vision

volume 37, issue 12, July 2022

Celebrating Our 76th year!

Young women with dreams become women with vision

Our Mission: To advance gender equity for women and girls through research, education, and advocacy.

Our vision: Equity for all.

Our values: Nonpartisan, fact-based, integrity, inclusion, and intersectionality.

President Elect Nomination

Karen Langer Baker has been nominated for our President-Elect. If elected, she will serve as president of Fallbrook AAUW next year. At this point, you may offer other nominations. I will be asking you to vote by e-mail in ten days.

Some news about our former president

Young Milton

Young attended graduation commencement on May 11th, however she received an email from Virginia Tech letting her know the degree is awarded.

It took her a challenging 2.5 years. She graduated from Virginia Tech with a Master's degree in Hydrology with a focus on Water and Marine Systems. The village news will be publishing an announcement from Phi Kappa Phi Society where she has been inducted for academics standing. With this degree Milton is qualified to teach at the community college lev. She would like to further her education with a PhD program that does not require an on-campus presence.

Programs

Patty Carlson and Diane Summers

Program Chair

Co-Chairs

Members- Margot Dokken, Carolyn Thom, Nancy Heins-glaser

We are excited on this new journey on arranging Programs-Meetings. I am grateful to Nancy Heins-glaser for asking me to help her with Programs for 22-23 year. I was surprised when she later told me of her plan to move from Fallbrook in the relatively near future. I was, however, delighted that Diane Summers has stepped up to the plate to be the co-chair, as we work on plans for programs that support the vision and goals of AAUW, as well as have fun and provide socialization with our fellow members. Also, happy that Nancy has been generous with her time and abilities to help in the initial planning.

Final program of 21-22 AAUW year brought us a celebration on this year's mentees that graduated from Fallbrook High School. It also was the installation of new AAUW officers for 22-23. Thanks for all the work of Susan Duling and Carolyn Thom for their excellent work on Programs. They leave big shoes to fill.

Next Program –

Saturday August 13, 2022 New Member Tea/brunch – (note this is the second Saturday rather than the first Saturday) Location: Home of Diane Summers (thank you). 2345 Trails End. Fallbrook

This is the program we have to that welcomes new members to AAUW Fallbrook. Also, if you have any prospective members, it's an opportunity for them to learn of all the fun and valuable activities offered at AAUW. This meetings program includes information from the committee chairs about their various groups and goals for the year. So, interest group leads, please be ready with your show and tell, as well as sign-up sheet to join your group. We will be passing out a survey asking your suggestions on what you would like to see in this year's programs. If you have any suggestions or ideas, please email Patty Carlson poochielyn444@gmail.com or Diane Summers @dianesummers04@gmail.com.

Reminders/To Do –

- August 13, 2022 – 10:00 Membership Tea at home of Diane Summers. Pop-ups will be needed. President Margie will be the hostess; special interest group chairs will describe their group's activities. Tables will be available for special interest groups for new members to sign-up.

AAUW Board Minutes

June 1, 2022

The meeting was held at Margie Mosavi's home. Present: Margie Mosavi, Susan Duling, Kathy Bierbrauer, Elizabeth Leader, Carolyn Thom, Patty Carlson, Karen Langer Baker, Nancy Heins-Glaser, Sharon Robinson, Diane Summers, and Pamela Nevills.

Approval of Previous Minutes – M/S and carried. Suggested changes by members were corrected prior to final minutes.

Correspondence – Kathy reported B.J. Lane's sister and mother passed away. Cards were sent.

Treasurer's Report – Checking $9,239. Savings $29,092. Total $38,332. Legacy account has some paper-work issues and our account will be restored to the correct amount so scholarship award funds may be accessed Membership – Carlene sent a report about the new method for membership renewal via computer. The June newsletter also has information for membership renewal. There were eight visitors at the May meeting. All were interested in membership for the next year. New members and members who have been inactive for more than two years can qualify for ½ price membership for National AAUW.

Scholarship Committee – Eight recipients will be attending the event on Saturday.

Ways and Means – Sharon suggested that we need to consider more "socials". Next year's fund-raising will be announced. An opportunity basket will be available for next Saturday's meeting.

Other Business/Reports –

- a. My Sister's Keeper – Diane Summers. My Sister's Keeper Foundation's (MSK) mission is to move women from average to excellence. The foundation's vision is dedicated to equipping and empowering a diverse community of women in their educational pursuits and goals, acquisition of life skills, and personal and professional development. Check the website at <https://www.mskfoundation.org/about>. Consider how our two organizations might support each other.
- b. Tech Trek – Larissa has resigned from chair position. The future of Tech Trek is uncertain.
- c. Karen Langer Baker has offered to complete the slate of officers by accepting the president elect position. Yeah Karen!

Mentorship Program

Karen Langer Baker

We celebrated our graduates at Kathy Bierbrauer's, enjoying a lovely luncheon in shaded areas of her large covered patio. Mentors provided a delicious variety of courses, Kathy put lots of sliced lemons from her orchard in pitchers of water, and we ended the event with chocolate cake.

Each graduate mentee received a beautiful charm bracelet, a Fallbrook AAUW membership certificate presented by President Margie Mosavi, and a card signed by all of the mentors which included information on becoming full national and California AAUW members while in college.
