President's Message

The past six months could be called our organization's "coming out of COVID". It actually began in June with the installation of officers and recognition of our 2022 AVID scholarship awardees. This well-attended meeting was held outside on the Palomares House patio. After a long season of mostly ZOOM meetings, we were happy to meet in person!

Your Board had a workshop at Patty Carlson's home in July where we focused on plans for the future. Among the goals we discussed were increasing membership, emphasis on DEI (diversity, equity and inclusivity) projects and how to better get involved in our community. I'm happy to report that we have made progress in all three of these areas. Unlike some AAUW branches in the San Diego area who are shrinking, we have added eight new members! Our monthly meetings (all in-person and well attended) have featured speakers from Fallbrook Land Conservancy, the League of Women Voters and My Sisters' Keeper. We have plans to get more involved with the Fallbrook Chamber of Commerce.

Now that students are back in school, the AVID mentorship program has been more active. The Hiking Group, the Bibliobabes book club, and the Movie Group are acquiring new and enthusiastic participants.

None of these accomplishments would have been possible without your support. Thanks to everyone for your participation.

Temecula Valley AAUW is celebrating 30 years of successes on Sunday, November 20th. Thanks to the Fallbrook branch for encouraging us in our endeavor and being a partner in our success over the years. Would like to invite all of you to come and help us celebrate. Thanks! ## Opportunity Drawing

Thank you to all for supporting our monthly opportunity basket.

From our drawings September, October and November we have raised $440. These funds will be used for expenses related to our monthly programs/events.

On November 5 we had two baskets. Nancy Heins-Glaser and Margie Mosavi were our lucky recipients. Many thanks to Charlotte Seidman for donating a fall sewing and craft basket and to Sharon Robinson, Carolyn Thom, Patty Carlson and Karin Moore for donating items for the second basket.

AAUW Board Meeting Minutes

November 2, 2022

The meeting was held at Margie Mosavi's home, beginning at 10:00 am.

Present: Margie Mosavi, Patty Carlson, Carlene Friesen, Susan Duling, Elizabeth Leader, Diane Summers, Kathy Bierbrauer, Pamela Nevills. Karen Trapane, and Sharon Robinson.

Approval of Previous Minutes - Suggested corrections by members were corrected prior to final minutes. Minutes were approved.

Correspondence – AAUW Corresponding Secretary Log was submitted by Susan Duling on October 30th and reviewed at the meeting.

Treasurer's Report – Conversion is almost done between Karen, present finance officer, and Elizabeth, previous finance officer. There is some unfinished business with the bank.

Financial considerations represented by April, 2022 document were discussed. Karen will review the document and bring a revised copy to the board when bank access is complete.

Budget –Finance Officer, Karen Trapane, will send a copy of the revised/final budget to board members. President Margie will seek approval via email for the budget. Karen will be attending a legacy meeting with IBC later this month.

Membership – Carlene reported 64 members and 4 student members. The directory should be available for the meeting and program, Saturday. Following the meeting it will be available at the Spoiled Avocado. Note that student members will not have personal information in the directory.

Diane mentioned there is an AAUW group at Cal State University, San Marcos. We need to encourage mentees who will be attending CSUSM to connect with this group. Carlene and Karen will provide the verbiage for a courtesy membership for members who join late in AAUW's calendar year, and present this proposal for the next meeting.

Scholarship – Item to be addressed beginning January. An introductory meeting is being held at the high school later this month. Margie and Carlene will attend.

Mentorship Program – Graduate Mentees who plan to attend the Christmas event need to be reminded of the change of date from Friday, the 9th of December to Saturday, the 10th. The new time is 5:30 pm. Girls will be invited to make a short statement of how AAUW has supported them for their post high school career goals.

Tech Trek – Sharon Robinson reported that Nov. 4th is the kick-off information meeting. The process for becoming a Tech Trek participant begins with teachers recommending 7th grade middle school participants. Potential camp participants submit an application, an essay, have interviews, and follow a series of commitments. Sharon will have more information for the next meeting. Larissa Anderson, former Tech Trek Coordinator has 24 years of Fallbrook AAUW history about Tech Trek participation.

Diversity – Diane Summers is hosting this Saturday’s meeting. A small group is meeting to establish a better understanding of diversity, equity, and inclusion. This group is also considering better understanding of students with special needs. The goal is to have a document that can be shared with Fallbrook AAUW members. Future programs will develop from the work of this newly formed group.

ARE YOU READY TO PARTY AND GET IN THAT AAUW HOLIDAY SPIRIT?

Our main social and fundraising event is in two weeks, on Saturday DECEMBER 10 at the Hilltop Center. Thank you to you all that have RSVP'd to the EVITE that was sent out. If you didn't get it let Patty Carlson poochielyn444@gmail.com know or if you haven't RSVP's yet, please do so now. Our theme this year is – Italian Buon Natale – This is a Pot Luck so thank you and we are looking forward to your delicious dishes! We have a terrific DJ so bring your dancing shoes too! We have a few former mentees that will be joining us as well with the hope they will reflect on what AAUW has meant for them.

Now some details for the fundraising part of the RED STOCKING FUNDRAISING EVENT. This is our main fundraiser of the year, and there are a few quirky details to help you out here as to your options.

You Can Make Your Check Payable to:

- a. AAUW Fallbrook (not tax deductible) -100% goes to AAUW-Fallbrook Scholarships and Mentee activities or
- b. Legacy Endowment (tax deductible) on memo line put “AAUW Fallbrook Scholarships or
- c. CASH – Envelopes – Put name and address, if desired – Receipts will be available.

If you cannot attend the event, but still want to donate to support our mission, please do as above and mail checks to AAUW-Fallbrook Treasurer, Karen Trapane, 1405 Joy Road, Fallbrook, CA 92028.

Also, why don't you ask for donations from family, friends or your company, perhaps matching funds are available. You can just ask. I did, and my brother donated $100. I thought...wow that was easy!

November meeting was one of the best ever.

Thanks to our wonderful speaker, Kristen Newsome from My Sister's Keeper Success Institute. working to empower BIPOC Girls and Young Women. She was truly inspirational, along with one of her students, who spoke on what that program has meant to her. We are hopeful, since we have similar missions, we can work together in the future. If you want to learn more about them, see www.msksi.com.

Speaker – My Sister’s Keeper- Success Institute Kristin Newsome. This program aligns with our Diversity and Inclusion mission and will discuss similar programs for STEM education and success for young women of color.

Speaker Swintalya Williams from “My Sisters Keeper”

Student Membership

Pictured L-R are a Representative of My Sister's Keeper Swintalya Williams, Sara Solano (Mentee) , and Norine Honea (Mentor). Sara was an active participant in the Q and A session.

We often think of our Mentoring program in the context of a valuable “fun” or “educational” event. However, in the larger context, the value is much greater than a single event, or even a single year. Sara and Norine have been in a mentoring relationship for 3 years, throughout Sara’s high school experience. They have been in it for “the long run”, and I expect it will continue even after Sara graduates’ high school. Sara attended the November General meeting with Norene, thoughtfully participated, and joined AAUW as a Student Member! Her membership will continue when she heads to college next year to major in Engineering, and hopefully she will decide to join AAUW as a full member post-graduation. We are encouraging all current mentees to join the Fallbrook Chapter as Student Members. They bring insights and energy to our meetings and the AAUW organization! Our current Student members include: Daniela Martinez, Xitlali Ortiz, Alicia Tomas, Sheny Tzuguen, and Sara Solano. The Student Membership Program is just an example of our Chapter’s effort to support AAUW’s mission of diversity, equity and inclusion, we are growing, and expanding our outreach into the community-at-large with educational and informational programs. Invite your friends to join us! We're on the move.!

We also had the opportunity to celebrate the 98th birthday of Lini Bennett with an honor and interesting and informative talk all about Lini given by Nancy Heins Glaser. (Photo by Nancy Heins-glaser)

HELP – PLEASE VOLUNTEER TO BE ON THE PLANNING COMMITTEE FOR THE COMBINED PARTY AND FUNDRAISING EVENT. SIGN UP SHEET AT MEETING OR EMAIL PATTY CARLSON, poochielyn444@gmail.com. There will be a DJ and Dancing and most importantly our RED Stocking EVENT, so start planning your holiday giving. We have asked some of our student AAUW Alumni to give us a TikTok video on what AAUW Fallbrook has meant to them. Prize for the best TikTok. This is an event where we can bring our significant others as well as if you have any prospective members or donors that would like to attend, they are invited too!

Meet New Fallbrook AAUW Member

Welcome our New Member, Rachel Rose.

Hi! I am Rachel Rose, recently moved to Vista from Los Angeles by way of the east coast (New York and Boston). Very glad to be here and meet all of you wonderful people.

I moved to be closer to my son, daughter in law and grandkids and thrill at not having to drive several hours or fly five hours to see them.

I graduated UC

Berkeley with degrees in nutrition and microbiology and spent most of my career working for medical schools, universities and hospitals in administrative positions. I was Director of Corporate and Foundation Relations at Harvard Medical School, Director for Science and Research at Massachusetts General Hospital and Director of Corporate Relations at Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons. Lots of International and National travel and lots of rubber chicken dinners.

In my free time I take history classes at Osher (UCSD) read both non-fiction and fiction, and sing gospel. I am a huge fan of classical music and opera (from Monteverdi through Britten) and already have tickets to the San Diego Bach Collegium season. Now I see there is an Early Music Society in San Diego. I also really like architecture, architectural preservation and design.

Mentorship Program

Karen Langer Baker

Thank you, all of you exceptionally wonderful mentors and mentees, for all the ways you participated in making Tuesday a memorable excursion! We had some interesting challenges, but that just made it more of an adventure that we will always remember! 😊

To those of you who were unable to join us, we really did miss you! Looking forward to our Holiday party at Sharon's house Saturday, December 17, at 11:30 am! I'll send more details in a few weeks. In the meantime, please make sure it's in your calendar and let me know if you can or cannot attend. In the meantime, be sure to connect with each other and plan to bake lots and lots of cookies for the party.

Susan Duling sent these great photos of some of the mentees, first while waiting for everyone to show up before boarding the train in the Oceanside station, and then enjoying the ride where all of had the best viewing seats on the upper deck of the train.

Since we have so many photos and 28 people total and I don't want to hurt anyone's feelings by not having at least one photo of each person, I have decided not to identify anyone in any of the photos on our trip. Instead, here is a list of everyone who went on the trip, which you can add somewhere in the article or just leave out...

Mentees: Seniors Alicia Tomas, Angelica Benitez, Cynthia Fonseca, Jassmin Cerda, Sara Solano, and Xitlali Ortiz; Juniors Aracely Palma, Lanique Boling, Marylin Estrada, and Shený Tzuquen; and Sophomores Daniela Martinez, Elena Mendoza, Eulalia Tomas, Jocelyn Baltazar, and Lila Tapia.

Mentors were: Karen Langer Baker, Elizabeth Leader, Marli Shoop, Norine Honea, Sharon Robinson, Chris Assad, Susan Dulling, Susan Schaeffer, Carolyn Thom, Grace Vanderwerf, Helena Hanna, and Patty Carlson.

We boarded the coaster train in Oceanside to head down to Old Town San Diego. A few minutes after departure, there was an announcement by the conductor that there has just been a 6.2 earthquake just barely south of the border! Because of that, they wanted to wait until they made sure the tracks were still safe. Once we started heading south, we learned that the decision had been made to have the train travel no faster than 18 mph. Once we reached Old Town, a few people departed and then suddenly, about 10 seconds later, the doors closed! Fortunately, none of us had departed yet, but passengers waiting to get on to head south were unable to embark. We had to go all the way to San Diego, wait until the train began its 18-mph journey back north before we were able to finally reach Old Town.

As a result, we had to go directly to the restaurant where our table was being held for us, way past our reservation time. We enjoyed a wonderful lunch and still had time to walk around and enjoy Old Town.

6.2 QUAKE OFF BAJA SHAKES PARTS OF COUNTY

Temblor struck at 6:21 a.m., 192 miles southeast of S.D.

BY GARY ROBBINS

A magnitude 6.2 earthquake erupted beneath the ocean floor off Baja California at 6:21 a.m. Tuesday, generating energy that was briefly but widely felt across many areas of San Diego County, according to the U.S. Geological Survey.

The temblor originated off the coast of Vicente Guerrero, Mexico — about 105 miles south of Ensenada and roughly 192 miles southeast of San Diego. There was no immediate indication that the quake would produce a tsunami.

The USGS says the shaking was felt in San Ysidro, Imperial Beach, Del Mar, San Diego, La Jolla, Lakeside, Encinitas, El Cajon, Lemon Grove, Miramar, Chula Vista, Santee, Oceanside and Borrego Springs. Shaking also was felt in Imperial County, notably El Centro.

The shocking story also serves as a launching pad for the #MeToo movement, shattering decades of silence around the subject of sexual assault and harassment
