Women with Vision

volume 40, issue 4 October 2023

Celebrating Our 77th year!

Young women with dreams become women with vision

Our Mission: To advance gender equity for women and girls through research, education, and advocacy.

Our vision: Equity for all.

Our values: Nonpartisan, fact-based, integrity, inclusion, and intersectionality.

President's Message

If you did not attend our last general meeting, you missed something really special! Some of our Tech Trek scholarship recipients were featured. They answered questions and talked about all they had experienced and learned during the week they spent on the UCSD campus. They were amazingly articulate about subjects most of us know absolutely nothing about! They are our future!

Now that the executive board is meeting in person only every other month (first Wednesday: September, November, January, March, May, and July), we still want to be sure to be there for you. By sending updates and reports to us EVERY month, a designated officer will contact you to find out if there is anything you need from us in advance of our next meeting. Please send your reports/requests to all: president (me), co-vice presidents (Patty Carlson and Diane Summers), co-membership chairs (Karen Weisberger and Rachel Rose), finance officer (Karen Trapane), recording secretary (Margot Dokken) and parliamentarian (Elizabeth Leader).

Lastly, as I plan to do throughout the year, I want to remind you to be on the lookout for qualified women you'd like to see become active members in AAUW. In addition, if you know anyone who would like to receive our newsletters and attend any of our events with you, but who are either not qualified or live too far away to participate, you can now encourage them to become sponsoring members for $20 a year. If your husbands or other male friends/associates would like to become active members, they can do so if they are qualified. If not, they can still join as sponsoring members. Please communicate with our membership co-chairs regarding this.

Notes and Gratitude for the September – Tech Trek meeting. Sharon Robinson and Susan Caso Duling led the Tech Trek team and the Tech Trek Young Women to update and inspire us about this year’s Tech Trek experience. The future looks bright with these young women. Those that have been members for a long time have said this was the BEST ever. Keep this good work in mind, and what we do for this community, in your fundraising raising efforts to get the funds for next year’s group of amazing young tech trek attendees.

NEXT MEETINGS

Saturday October 7th –General Meeting Fallbrook Health District, 1636 E. Mission, Classroom #1, Open 10:00 – Meeting starts at 10:30 (or earlier if everyone is there and ready).

Evites have been sent out to members and prospective members. This would be a good program to invite your mentees to. Just add her to your EVITE RSVP.

Our guest speaker is the superintendent for the Fallbrook Union High School District, Ilsa Garza Gonzalez, she is going into her 5th year at the district. In that time, she has streamlined expenses, balanced finances, successfully managed to set up virtual coursework during the pandemic, feed families in the community during that time, finished the center bowl of the campus at Fallbrook High, undone since 1999 and now has provided a winning football team. Go Warriors! She will be discussing the advantages of the new quarter system and future plans for the district.

Saturday November 4th – General Meeting

Fallbrook Health District, 1636 E. Mission, Classroom #1, Open 10:00 – Meeting starts at 10:30 (or earlier if everyone is there and ready) –

New Speaker, Eileen Delany, leader of the Fallbrook Planning Committee. She will discuss what the planning committee does for our community and specifically discuss what's going on with the following issues:

- Cannabis businesses in Fallbrook
- Legislation about detachments
- New Park in Fallbrook

Saturday December 9 - AAUW HOLIDAY PARTY — Hilltop Center –

Theme – Holidays South of the Border. Those December calendars fill up fast, so please mark the date. You don't want to miss this fun annual party and Red Stocking Fundraiser. Also, please start thinking of any donors that might want to join this fundraising activity. Start thinking of your favorite recipes for our always amazing potluck dinner, Mexican and other central American dishes. I have a Salvadorian relleno type dish that I will perfect.

We are always interested in your recommendation for great speakers and topics as we start our planning for 2024.

Tech Trek Awards

Tech Trek - Post Camp Breakdown with Scholarship Winners

3 out of 5 of our Scholarship Winners were able to attend our September monthly meeting to share their camp experiences and receive their completion certificates!

There was a question-and-answer session, thank you notes were shared and we also brought up Susan Duling, our “dorm monitor” to talk about her experience attending camp.

Virtual Camp was also discussed for next year, depending on what might work with our nominees.

For Tech Trek Staff Report:

California AAUW Members and Tech Trek Alumnae may volunteer for Tech Trek Residential and Virtual Camps. To learn more about volunteer roles for Tech Trek, go to: <https://www.aauw-ca.org/tech-trek-volunteer/>

AAUW Board Meeting Minutes

September 6, 2023

The Board held its September meeting at 10 a.m. at the home of Patty Carlson.

Present (6): President Karen Langer Baker, Pres-elect Patty Carlson, 1st co-VP Programs Diane Summers, 2nd co-VP Membership Rachel Rose, Finance Officer Karen Trapano, Recording Secretary Margot Dokken

A motion to approve the minutes of July 8, 2023 was seconded and passed.

Previous to the meeting, all board members received and reviewed activity reports from Programs, DEI, PR/Publicity, Hospitality, Corresponding Secretary, Web Manager, Tech Trek, Membership, Historian, Photographer, Public Policy, and Finance.

Finance Report – Karen Trapano (KT) reported the following:

Our checking account balance = $11,836.86 and our savings account balance = $29,098.85 Endowment account balance (ending June 30, 2023) = $36,035.52 This endowment money is controlled by Legacy.

*Scholarship checking account balance (ending March 31, 2023) = $15,163.50
When members pay their annual dues online, $20 is returned to our branch from National. This money is annotated and shown on the report.

Proposed Budget – Fallbrook branch had 43 members as of Aug 10; the number rises to 61 if everyone renews. The Board agreed to set a goal of 75 (14 new members) by June 2024. That would mean $1,500 in the branch's coffers just from dues. Besides members asking friends to join, it was suggested that our branch could approach other branches' members and invite them to also associate with our branch in order to participate in our unique endeavors, e.g., our Tech Trek and mentorship programs.

Diane Summers volunteered to be our branch ambassador at Student of the Month at North Coast Church on the first Thursday of the month as a way to get our mentees involved. She will also connect with the Village Rotary Club, as it sponsors the Miss Fallbrook contest and awards scholarships.

501(c)3 Report on Legacy – Because of ongoing problems in communicating with Legacy, the Board discussed the possibility of getting our own 501(c)3 nonprofit status. Though the process appears to be straightforward in filing papers with the bank, questions arose about how to handle donations until then. Hiring an accountant annually could perhaps be offset by what we now pay Legacy. Nonprofit status would give our branch full control of our scholarship endowment and boost our efforts at soliciting contributions from individuals and businesses. It was decided to explore the possibility.

Fundraising – KT suggested a letter-writing campaign — say, in October, February, and April — requesting donations and inviting new members. Branch members could gather on a Saturday or after general meetings to write 5 letters each time.

Another fundraising idea is to create business window stickers or bumper stickers representing different donation amounts, e.g., $150 bronze, a higher amount for gold, $1,200 platinum. A motion was made to revisit this idea once we have 501(c)3 status. It was seconded and passed.

Holiday fundraiser – It was moved, seconded, and passed to allocate $1,000 to cover event expenses for the bartender, DJ, music, décor, clean up, etc.

Live auction (Carole Hodges, chair) This will be a stand-alone event right after a general meeting.

Spring Tea – The branch saw a $180 profit from difference between what we charged for lunch at La Cucina Trattoria and the actual expense.

Opportunity drawings – Susan Duling has passed responsibility for this raffle to KT.

Proposed operating expense: The Board discussed providing flyers that promote events and membership in the Fallbrook teachers' publication @ $5/ad = $60

Programs – upcoming

October 7: Ilsa Garza-Gonzalez, Superintendent for Fallbrook Union High School District

November 4: DEI to present the program

December 9: Holiday fundraiser and party

January no date yet: Interbranch Council meeting

The Board discussed the pros and cons of participating in Gov Trek. Pro: it looks good on a résumé. Con: a similar program is already an elective at school, so unnecessary for us to replicate.

Does our branch want to be part of 5-week, state AAUW-sponsored program? It's also a national AAUW program. No one at local level has shown an interest in leading it. We can revisit this in the future if interest arises.

Membership – In a lawsuit against Fallbrook Chamber of Commerce, the male plaintiff claims that he “felt uncomfortable” not being included in the women's tea. We need to be careful in our stated reasons for targeting only women. The Board discussed ways to include men. We already have a “student” membership that is free but non-voting. It was moved and seconded to create a Fallbrook Branch “supporting” member category, also non-voting, for men, spouses, and other individuals who support Fallbrook AAUW's goals and programs, and who will donate at least $20.

Mentorship Program – Marli Shoop will provide a current count of mentors. It was noted that we have lots of new mentors.

Tech Trek – The Board entertained the suggestion of adding the option of virtual Tech Trek scholarships to accommodate girls and families when physical attendance is not possible and virtual Tech Trek is a better option. It was decided to get more information on the price and anticipated experience for the participant. KT will talk to Sharon Robinson.

Scholarship – Will be discussed closer to when the program kicks in, in spring of 2024.

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion – Brave Angels is a bipartisan, national group that conducts debates and workshops for discussing politics cooperatively among opposing views. Diane will report back after her first session with the group.

Other Business/Reports –

Appointed chairs' reports – Margot will check with Lesley Ibaiven to confirm that she's willing to continue as newsletter editor. The Board recognized the value of the leaders of our standing committees and interest groups.

Membership will oversee chapter interest groups, fielding requests and making sure that they send any bimonthly activity reports to all board members. Each group already sends the editor a blurb to include in the newsletter.

The Board welcomed the new ukulele group.

New Business

Student of the Month: Diane Summers will introduce it to mentees and mentors at next week's ice cream social.

Board Meetings Schedule:

The next Board Meeting is Wednesday Nov 1.

Future board meetings are scheduled for the first Wednesday of the month, every other month. January 3, March 6, May 1

Continuing business before next meeting:

501(c)3 update

Vote on Proposed Budget as soon as it is complete – possibly via zoom

Directory editor: Should be a Membership VP who takes responsibility for getting the directory done. The format is established and only needs some updating (photos and new members). List names only (not photos or other information) of Student Members and Supporting Members.

Public Policy

Advancing Gender Equity is Advancing Environmental Sustainability (and vice versa) By Missy Maceyko, Co-Chair, CA State Public Policy Committee

After a year of wild weather in California, many of us may be thinking more about climate, environment, and sustainability. How does our concern with the weather relate to AAUW California's Public Policy Priorities? Advancing gender equity is directly related to environmental sustainability. The inverse is also true.

The United Nations sustainable development goals, adopted in 2015, seek to push all countries to act to protect the planet, ensure widespread prosperity, and promote peace. Achieving gender equality, goal number five, is a crucial element in this overall strategy.

We know that having greater gender diversity in leadership improves organizations. One of AAUW California's public policy focus areas is increasing women in leadership positions. However, advancing this goal can also have positive climate impacts. The UN has found that having greater gender diversity in climate discussions leads to improved outcomes on climate-focused policies and projects. This is just one case in which we can see how sustainable development goal 5, promoting greater gender equality, alongside advancing AAUW California's public policy priorities, can be important for achieving sustainable development goal 13, creating more impactful climate action.

Data also shows us that (un)sustainable production and consumption patterns, which harm the environment, tend to be gendered, with "green" choices being widely feminized. While this is a global trend, we see this in popular portrayals of more planet-friendly consumption choices in the United States, as well, such as veganism, which tends to be marked as more "feminine" and less "masculine." This example shows us that sustainable development goal 5, promoting greater gender equality, alongside AAUW California's overall public policy mission of advancing equity for women and girls, is also important for achieving sustainable development goal 12, which focuses on creating more planet-friendly and responsible production and consumption patterns.

Advancing gender equity is directly related to environmental sustainability, and vice versa. In advancing AAUW California's public policy goals, and expanding the rights of all women and girls, we can help create the conditions for greater justice and inclusion, economic parity, and environmental viability, all at the same time.

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Group

Hello Fellow AAUW members,

This month the DEI interest group meet for Coffee and Conversation on Wednesday September 20th. Those in attendance were Maritza Gonzalez, Susan Duling, Nancy Heins, Chris Assad and me. We had a lively discussion on the various social issues of the day. What we have accomplished so far and our plans for this academic year.

Highlights of last year were:

Our visit and tour of DeVine Path, our local school to prepare young disabled adults for careers. The visit we had with the Provost at the Palomar Community College Fallbrook Site asking for a bus program to pick up graduated seniors that cannot afford cars and insurance.

Two guests came to our meeting from Iran who were Margie's sisters-in laws.

Viewing a video of a transgender woman concerning her struggles.

Attaining the speaker for the General Meeting from My Sister's Keeper".

Our next two meetings will be October 25 and November 15, both 10am to 12 at my house at 2345 Trails End, Fallbrook. No meeting in December, then January 4th to practice for our Presentation at the General Meeting January 6 th. All members and their guests are welcome.

our Mission Statement

To discuss the various forms of social need and do what we can to promote empathetic openings of understanding.

TALKING OF WHICH.....

On any given day you can find AAUW leaders all over the town of Fallbrook.

Karen Weisberger enjoys Fallbrook's shade trees and good shopping!

Students create mural on what it means to be multilingual

Before summer, a new mural was painted at Fallbrook Union High School with a professional muralist guiding the high school students. The mural, which took about three months to complete, was part of an after-school project and class, which later expanded to include any students that wished to participate.

When the mural project was initiated, Pauline Woolson, a dual immersion teacher at Fallbrook High School, reached out to a professional muralist, Gloria Favela Rocha, about joining the project. Rocha agreed and guided the students.

Two of our mentees participated Eulalia Thomas (pictured) and Elena Mendoza.

Gloria Favela-Rocha

“I have been drawing and painting for most of my life. In the early 1990's, I discovered a love for oil painting in the early 90's. It was through the exploration of this new passion that I met a local mural artist who began teaching me the technique and art of mural painting. I then began a three-year apprenticeship under this artist before moving to start my own business.

As I began painting murals and establishing my business, I also began studying Interior Design. Through this learning and background, I was able to continue to expand and perfect my art. Since then, I have painted murals all over Southern California, both in residential and commercial spaces. It is through my work and through art that I find purpose and meaning. Being able to share that with others is why I love what I do”.

Hospitality Group

A big thank you to our super helpers for the September 9 meeting Grace Vander Werf, Norine Honea, Chris Assad, Susan Duling and Karen Wiesberger you made our meeting special.

And, for our October 7 gathering Norine Honea, Marli Shoop, Rachel Bisle, Chris Assad, Karen Estes and Susan Duling are onboard to make our meeting more than inviting.

Thank you.

Scarecrow Days

Grace VanderWerf

Busy days are going down at “The Scarecrow Factory” in town with a team of some of Fallbrook’s talented artists paper macheing, painting, hammering, stuffing, dressing and positioning fabulous scarecrows on scaffolds to be easily transported and displayed at community businesses. Dale Chihuly, Rosie the Riveter, Audrey Hepburn and Rosa Parks are just a few of the people they have recreated in the scarecrows to honor for their talent, humanitarian commitment and perseverance for social justice. Other scarecrows are made to honor the talent of those who created some imaginary characters who have brought entertainment and joy to many of us. I had the pleasure of joining this team recently and they put me right to work stuffing and dressing the scarecrows they were working on. It is a marvelous place of creativity, collaboration, problem solving and achievement. These women are amazing and a real gift to our community. I hope we all take the time to walk through our streets to visit the scarecrows and to shop at the stores in our wonderful town.

Following submitted by Nancy Heins-Glaser Special Events Chair

AAUW mentees have helped with Ursula which will go on the roof of one of AAUW's favorite stores COMPASS. Grace VanderWerf joined too.

Grace has come to add finishing touches on behalf of AAUW's selected scarecrows this year: Rosa Parks and Audrey Hepburn.

Rosa Parks was selected for her ability to stand up under adversity to just say no after being asked to move to the back of the bus to give up her seat for a white person. She was jailed for this just refusal.

Hepburn was selected for her undying commitment to helping children at the latter part of life after her career was finished. Though I could not find an actual quote it's been said that she considered her life as a Goodwill Ambassador for United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund (UNICEF) to be her greatest role. She was a testament to not only being committed to help others but her gratitude for being able to be so successful.

The Mentorship Group

The Mentorship group held its first meeting with 15 Avid female students on September 13 in a well-attended ice cream social at Fallbrook high school. A total of 17 mentors got together with new mentees or spent time with their current mentees in a fun and relaxed atmosphere. A total of 9 new mentees, two juniors and seven sophomores have come on board. We also welcomed new mentors, Maggie Mosavi, Marisa Romano, Pamela Nevills, Carlene, Friesen, and Maritza Gonzalez.

Some mentors who are in charge of some of this year's activities had a chance to speak about those activities. We were introduced to the Catherine Hepburn "scarecrow" and invited to join the workshop by Nancy Heinz-Glaser Our activities for October and November are attending the Seussical at the Moonlight theater on October 21, doing a Scarecrow Walk followed by ice cream on October 25, and attending an outdoor movie night ("Hidden Figures") on November 17. The ice cream and the treats were great, and so was the company.

Thank you, mentors and mentees, for participating

Next Meeting October 16 to discuss "The Covenant of Water," by Abraham Verghese, Ann's selection.

Spanning the years 1900 to 1977, The Covenant of Water is set in Kerala, on South India's Malabar Coast, and follows three generations of a family that suffers a peculiar affliction: in every generation, at least one person dies by drowning—and in Kerala, water is everywhere.

And so, we enter the world of Abraham Verghese's The Covenant of Water. The year is 1900, and a 12-year-old girl takes a boat to get married to a 40-year-old widower. She goes on to become Big Ammachi, the matriarch of the estate of Parambil. Over the course of seven decades, she will be the unwavering center of this land and its community. She will discover that there is a curse, a "Condition" that runs in the family – a drowning in every generation – that no one can explain and everyone prays a doctor will find a cure for.

Movie Review Group

The September Movie review of Oppenheimer was marvelous. Chris Assad did fantastic research and led a lively discussion. All attending had seen the movie! Marli and Rick Shoop were welcoming hosts; we enjoyed eating inside and outside!

The Queen's Gambit is a 1983 American Novel by Walter Tevis, exploring the life of a fictional female chess prodigy Beth Harmon. A bildungsroman, or coming-of-age story, it covers themes of adoption, feminism, chess, drug addiction and alcoholism. The book was adopted for the 2020 Netflix miniseries of the same name

New interest group: Ukulele group

Ukulele players (and wannabe players) unite!

Our membership brunch revealed an interest in learning and playing the ukulele. So, we're organizing to do just that.

We plan to meet on Friday, September 29 at 2 pm at the home of Grace Vanderwerf, 1756 Pala Lake Dr., Fallbrook

If you're interested in renewing or starting an interest in group play and would like to join us, please contact Margot Dokken (949-280-2628 or nevehmind@gmail.com). She will email you beginning sheet music (key of C) for you to print out and bring to the September meeting.

Walking Group

The hiking group had their first hike around the Pala Mesa area and across Pamela Neville's property. It was 3 miles of views, beautiful properties, ups and downs, avocado trees with a few chickens too!

Our next hike will be Oct 6 at 10:00 at the Alta Vista Botanical Garden at Brengle Terrace Park in Vista. Bring a lunch because they have a nice area to eat and some money because they ask for a $5 donation. Also, Ann will open the gift store for us. This is a unique place that I think you will really enjoy. The trail is very easy and flat. Let's car pool. I can take 4 people. Please let us know if you can drive a group. It seems to work nicely to meet in the Dr Duling's parking lot on Mission. I hope to see more of you hiking with us! This will be special.
